MOORES TO DIRECT GRAND JURY PROBE

United States Commissioner Appointed To Charge Of Investigation Of McCray's Affairs

TO START FRIDAY MORNING

Marion Bank Attorney Will Not
Have Witnesses Ready Until Then
—State Committee Meets

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1. —
Judge James A. Collins in criminal court today appointed Charles
W. Moores, United States commissioner, as special prosecutor to conduct the grand jury investigation of Governor McCray's financial affairs.

It was agreed that the investigation be started at nine o'clock next Friday morning. Judge Collins said
he would instruct the grand jury
at that time.

Judge Collins was ready to go ahead with the probe today but it developed that Gus Condo, attorney
for the Marion, Ind., National Bank,
which is seeking the investigation,
did not have his witnesses here to testify today.

Condo said officials of the bank
could testify today if necessary, but that it would take several days to subpoena some of the witnesses
from remote parts of the state.

In a belligerent mood, Governor
McCray at noon refused to accept
the invitation of the state committee
to meet with them during their "informal probe."

"I would be very glad to meet with the committee or duly appointed
sub-committee at my office, at any time to discuss state administration
matters or matters of party policy," he informed Chairman Wall of the state committee.

"I do not care, however, to discuss my personal misfortune or financial difficulties, except with those who are directly interested."

The governor said he had absolutely no intention of resigning.

"I have gone through two and one half years of successful administration," he said. "I certainly can continue now."

The governor said he was injury wants to know. He indicated personally and tell everything the
jury wants to know. He indicated
that his attorneys do not at this time favor his volunteering to testify.

The state committee meeting got under way behind closed doors
shortly after noon.

During the morning, members of the committee and party workers
from all parts of the state milled
under way behind closed doors
where the meeting is being held.

Gus Condo, attorney for the Marion national bank will appear before the grand jury with witnesses to tell of alleged irregularities in transactions.

FIGHT ON STREET CORNER

Prosecutor Says Affidavits Will Likely Be Filed Against Two Prominent Farmers

Several arrests were made over
the week-end and further affidavits
are expected to be filed, following a series of events that took place.
Three automobile drivers were caught in a net that is being spread
by the police to put an end to wild
and fast driving.

A fistie encounter on the streets
down town Saturday afternoon
caused quite a stir, and according to Police Chief Blackburn, who witnessed the affair and separated the men,
the participants were William
A. Mull and Lon Coons.

The men, both of whom are of
large proportions, were getting away
to a good start, when the officer interfered. The trouble was said to be an old grudge. The men are neighbors and live southwest of here. No arrests was made by the officer, but Prosecutor Ketchum
stated that he expected charges
would be filed.

Patrolman Lakin arrested Dora
Edwards, a groceryman of this city,
on charges of improperly driving his automobile in the business district
on Saturday afternoon, and on Saturday night he arrested Lowell
Osborne, living southwest of here, on a charge of speeding. Gladstone

RUSHVILLE HIGH SCHOOL HONORED

Miss Jean Herkless Elected Secretary-Treasurer of Indiana High School Press Association

MEMBER OF ANNUAL STAFF

Four staff members of the R. H. S.
Annual and a faculty advisor attended the press convention at Franklin
last Friday and Saturday and brought home great honors, as Jean Herkless, literary editor on the staff
and one of the delegates, was elected secretary-treasurer of the Indiana
High School Press Association for the coming year. Since there were seventy-five schools represented, it is quite a distinction to have one of the local delegates elected. Miss Herkless is a senior.

The staff returned with many new
and snappy ideas for their book this year and they are going to endeavor
to put across a book which will gain
a place at the third annual convention next year and one which the people of Rushville will be proud to back. They have implied that there are many surprises in store for prospective purchasers of this Annual.

At the convention the delegates
heard such prominent speakers as R.
H. Nason, Art Crafts Guild, Chicago
Ill., R. P. Maplesden of the Stafford
Engraving Co., Indianapolis, Ind.,
Lee White of the Detroit News, and Senator Watson. With such ideas, suggestions and advice, this should be the best year yet, according to members of the staff.

MAN HUNT RESUMED TODAY

Searching Parties Seek Slayer of Muncie Policeman

Muncie, Ind., Oct. 1.—Searching
until last midnight, with dawn today
resumed the man hunt for Claude
Michaels, 46, who at noon Sunday
shot and fatally wounded Patrolman
Tony Hellis, junior member of the Muncie police force, firing three shots into his body and then escaping.

Hundreds of persons afoot and in automobiles joined the police in the search for the man, who after running a short distance from the scene
of the shooting, was seen to stop and reload one of the two revolvers he
was carrying, and then to enter an
out-building half a mile from his home. This was the last seen of him
but so quickly was the net spread
about the city that police are confident the fugitive is still hiding somewhere in Muncie.

Patrolman Hellis and Laffin had answered the call of a woman asking
them to come to the Michaels home
where Michaels was said to have threatened to shoot his wife.

French Troops Patrolling Dusseldorf
After Sunday's Fatal Riots—Six-

(By United Press)
Berlin, Oct. 1. —"The army now
is moving to suppress a movement to seize the Kuestrin fortress, near Frankfurt," an official statement
said.

The government statement admitted an extensive nationalist outbreak, in which organized groups attacked the fortress as beginning of a plan to seize military bases
throughout the Frankfurt area.

It was claimed, however, that government forces are in control of the situation and the strong reinforcements have routed several detachments of nationalists.

Concert by Community Orchestra
Sunday Afternoon is Attended by a Large Crowd

PLANS FOR NEXT SEASON

A. P. Wagoner, Director, Hopes to Give One or Two Concerts Each Month at Memorial Park

A large crowd attended the concert Sunday afternoon by the Community orchestra at the coliseum in Memorial park, when 35 musicians
under the leadership of A. P. Wagoner, rendered a most enjoyable program before an appreciative audience.

The concert marked the close of the park for the season, and between 2,000 and 3,000 people were on the grounds during the afternoon.

The program rendered by the musicians was varied, and numbers that
were especially applauded were solos
by William Polk on the cornet, Walter Stiers on the violin, and a duet
by Harry Lucas and William Polk,
on cornets.

Orchestral numbers were exceedingly well played, and the Hunting
Scene number was descriptive in every detail, including the barking of
the dogs, and the shooting of the game. "Faust" and the "Poet and Peasant Overture" were other numbers by the orchestra that were applauded.

Mr. Wagoner assembled the musicians from all parts of the county,
and he expects to continue the organization, even on a larger scale
next summer. It is planned to hold
one or two concerts a month in the park next season, and judging from
the interest that was taken Sunday,
the concerts will be more than appreciated.

Persons attended yesterday from Greensburg, Shelbyville, Newcastle,
Muncie, St. Paul and surrounding towns in the county.

On account of a slight expense incurred in buying music, electric lights and other incidentals, an offering was taken at the doors, and the contributions more than paid the outstanding bills.

Mr. Wagoner today desired to express his appreciation to the people of the county for attending the concert, and he also thanked the
George C. Wyatt and Company of this city, who donated the use of chairs in practices and for the concert, with no expense at all.

PETITION FOR PARTITION

Mary L. Sharp Seeks Sale And Division Of Property In Arlington

A petition for partition of real estate has been filed in the circuit court by Mary L. Sharp, by her next friend, Earl Kennedy, against Essie Sharp, et al., the petition being for the sale and division of property located in Arlington.

The suit of the Marion Building
and Investment company against Cyrus Hilligoss, a complaint for foreclosure of a mortgage, has been dismissed by the plaintiff.

There was no business of much importance before the court today, as
the trial of the State against Lester
Caron, which was scheduled for today, was called off, on account of the defendant pleading guilty. Sheriff Hunt left this morning for the Penal farm, where he took the defendant, who will serve a six months
term on a charge of unlawfully
transporting liquor.

The play was written by Kenyon
Nicholson, who is press agent for Stewart Walker and a nephew of the great writer, Meredith Nicholson.
He wrote the play only a short time
ago and gave it to Denning Havens,
of this city, to try out. This will be the opening performance of the show, thus giving Rushville something new in the way of local talent shows.

Denning Havens, who has successfully directed many plays both here and elsewhere, will direct the

ing filed a suit on an account and
proceedings in attachment against
C. A. Marcum, who rooms at 509
North Main street, with the demand
of the action being for $34.10 judgment.

The attachment was served, and
several grips of personal belong-

the defendant in his automobile. The
attachment also called for the ma-

COURT ACTS TO STOP MEDDLING

Oklahoma State Judge Issues Injunction Against Gov. Walton's
"Army" Interfering

WITH ELECTION TUESDAY

Governor's Special Police Guard Election Supplies, But Vote Will be Held, Officials Say

(By United Press)
Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 1.—An injunction prohibiting Governor Walton's
"army" from interfering with the special election here tomorrow was issued by State Judge Hunt today.
All forces, including militia, special
police and "citizens volunteer army"
were included in the writ.

Twelve of the governor's special
police were guarding election supplies and Sheriff Sanford said the election would be held. "The supplies
will be distributed before night," the sheriff said.

One hundred thousand men, according to Governor J. C. Walton's
calculations took up arms in Oklahoma today to carry out the executive's orders that there should be no
special election in the state tomor-

At the election, officially called
and then banned by the governor,
voters were to cast their ballots on
an initiated law providing that the legislature might convene itself without an official summons from the executive. Governor Walton declared
his enemies, made by his militaristic
fight against the Ku Klux Klan, agi-
tated the proposed law.

George F. Short, state's attorney
general; W. C. McAllister, secretary of the state election board, and other officials joined in saying the election would be held; in ordering ballots printed, and making other arrangements to keep the polls open.

Short said "every voter should go to the polls quietly and peaceably to cast his ballot as his conscience dictates."

Printing presses throughout the state were rushing to turn out ballots for the election.

The governor said his armed force to prevent the polls from opening included:

The entire Oklahoma national guard of 4,000 men, now ordered mobilized.

A volunteer army of 75,000 men.
The governor's special corps of secret operatives which he said was composed of 22,000.

The governor said that while the
militia would not be used to keep the
polls closed, it would be held in readiness in case any rioting developed. His special police will be stationed at doors of the polls.

CORN CROP TWO WEEKS BEHIND

By PROF. A. T. WIANCKO
(Purdue University Agricultural Experiment Station)

The development of the corn crop of Indiana is about two weeks behind normal. In certain sections considerable frost damage has occurred. All over the state there are fields here and there that are still green. Furthermore, recent weather conditions have not been favorable to rapid ripening of immature corn.

nor to the drying out of corn that is ripe. Considering these various conditions and factors farmers should take immediate steps to make sure of a supply of good seed corn for next year. Even where conditions at this time are bad, it may be possible to insure satisfactory seed corn by going through the field and selecting the better ears and putting them away where they can be properly dried and made safe from further damage. We can not foresee when there may be a severe frost or how much wet, sultry weather there may be that will cause spoilage in the field.

While, of course, selecting ears as nearly mature as possible, it is highly important to make sure that they come from healthy, vigorous stalks and clean shanks showing sound tissues where the ear breaks off. One must keep on the lookout and avoid ears that have been prematurely ripened by disease. Under normal development the stalk remains green until after the ear is fully dented.

Where corn is not already well matured and it is necessary to take sappy ears for seed, it will be especially important to completely separate the ears in the place of storage and to provide ample air circulation. Corn that is not fully dented and partly dry will spoil in a room with stagnant air, especially where the ears are in contact. There should be a breeze passing through the room. With proper care at the start, such selected corn will soon be out of danger of further injury.

What the rest of the season will be can not be foretold. We do know, however, that corn in backward and that the weather has been unfavorable, and should not take a chance on being caught without good sense. The lessons of 1917 should not be forgotten.

AIR RACES ARE POSTPONED

Will be Held at St. Louis Last Three Days of This Week

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 1.—The Pulitzer air races, scheduled to be held here today, Tuesday and Wednesday, will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The seven races will be held three days later because of rains Sunday which flooded St. Louis Flying Field, at Bridgeton, Mo., eight miles away. The Pulitzer 200 kilometer race for the world's speed championship will be held Saturday instead of Wednesday as originally scheduled.

Flooded conditions of the grounds put the field in a condition where it would have been dangerous for the fliers to alight at the high speeds necessary, a committee of the air board, army and navy officials decided before announcing the postponement.

The sessions of the Air Institute of the Aeronautical Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce will be held on the first three days of this week as scheduled.

BERLIN ADMITS TROUBLE EXISTS

Dispatches from Dusseldorf today placed the dead at sixteen, including twelve separatists, two "blue" and two "green" police.

Wounded were estimated at from 50 to 100 or more. Order had been restored today. French patrols marched through the streets all night, rigorously downing all attempts at disorders or gatherings.

The French arrested a number of Germans charging them with inciting riot, which started yesterday afternoon when a huge gathering of separatists, estimated as high as 30,000 was holding a demonstration near the center of the city listening to speakers plead for establishment of a Rhenish republic, independent of the German Reich.

The Reich's cabinet was in session last night with Chancellor Stresemann presiding to consider the serious situation.

The cabinet also considered outlines of an important speech which the chancellor will deliver in the Reichstag tomorrow.

The speech bears on the foreign and internal situation.

It was assumed Stresemann would consider the state of affairs in Bavaria and explain the reasons which caused the government to declare limited martial law throughout the nation, with Defense Minister Gessler as national dictator.

Regarding reparations, it was believed the chancellor will admit no definite plans can be made until the government receives further word from the allies.

Stresemann also was due to explain the reason the government has tolerated the high handed actions of Bavarian Dictator Von Kahr, who several times have defied the authority of the central government in Bavaria affairs.

Dusseldorf was under martial law today by proclamation of General Simon, the French commander.

Correspondents could not agree as to the exact overtact which caused the start of the bloody rioting. Some dispatches blamed the green police, declaring their charge on the mob brought demonstrations of the separatists, while others said the action was a result of a raid on the police by the "protective troops."

The principal fighting took place in the Hindenburg Hall in front of a stand where a huge crowd of the separatists who had arrived earlier in the day on special trains was listening to a speech by Herr Mathes, separatist leader.

The police used machine guns and rifles in their attack, charging the separatists with the utmost ferocity. The demonstrators fled helplessly in all directions, only to be met with fresh attacks by new police detachments and anti-separatist bands.

Many persons, including women and children, were trampled. When the fighting was at its height French troops were called out and surrounded the embattled area, forcing the German police organizations to return to their barracks.

The separatists were allowed to disperse and told to return to their homes.

The situation throughout the Ruhr and Rhineland was considered most alarming today, advices in Berlin indicating the separatists still are determined to carry out their intention to proclaim an independent Rhine republic, despite the almost solid opposition of all other elements of the German population, including the communists.

A communist counter-demonstration to off-set the separatists was under way in Dusseldorf while the rioting was at its height.

All the communists pledged themselves to support of the German Reich.

Bavarian Monarchy Seen

Munich, Oct. 1.—"Monarchy will be proclaimed in Bavaria very soon" well informed persons told the correspondent of the United Press today.

These persons, close to the Bavarian internal situation, believed a move to restore the Wittelsbach family to its pre-war status already is under way. They pointed to the enormous demonstration given the former crown Prince Rupprecht and his wife when they arrived here yesterday as proof of the popularity of the former royal family.

'KING' BEN THOUGHT DEAD

Raid at House of David Colony Leads to This Belief

(By United Press)
Benton Harbor, Mich., Oct. 1.—Belief that "King" Benjamin Purnell, leader of the House of David, is dead was strengthened today following the unsuccessful raid early yesterday on the colony here.

More than 100 state troopers and deputy sheriffs participated in the hunt, which extended to every house in the colony and surrounding territory.

State officials are anxious to locate Purnell to have him appear before the one man grand jury at St. Joseph, Mich., tomorrow when investigation of the affairs of the colony is resumed.

While Benjamin was not unearthed all of his clothing was found. This fact leads Sheriff George C. Bridgeman who directed one section of the raid, to believe that the Shiloh leader is dead.

Where would we be anyway if it weren't for advertising?

What a lot of time advertising saves us! We need something. We see it advertised. And we go straight from where we are now to where the article is sold.

Have you ever gone around from place to place seeking for something which you knew existed but which nobody else seemed to know anything about, not even the storekeepers?

You have wasted an hour, maybe several hours, possibly half a day. You have worn out your patience, and before the end of the quest probably you began to figure that the thing which you sought was not, after all, so good as you thought it was, otherwise other people besides yourself would know something about it.

The manufacturer who advertises, invests his money, therefore, not alone to tell of the merits of his goods, but to save you time. The manufacturer who is willing to pay for advertising space in newspapers or magazines in order to point out to you where his merchandise is sold, so that you may get there quicker and buy it easier, is not going to skimp or cheat in manufacturing it.

After going to all the trouble and expense of telling you just where you may find it, he is going to see to it that when you do buy it, it is good enough so that you will buy it again.

And in making up your mind about merchandise which is advertised, consider this last thought—the manufacturer can well afford to make it as good as it can be made because one sale means hundreds, even thousands of others following naturally and costing him nothing extra.

Lakehurst, N. J., Oct. 1. —The navy dirigible ZR-1 left for St. Louis on a non-stop flight at 6:59 o'clock this morning.

The navy's giant of the air was eased out of her hangar at 6:30 o'clock and 15 minutes later rose from the field. Although a fifteen mile breeze was blowing, the ground

Her crew is composed of 42 officials and men under Commander Frank R. McCary. Colonel C. G. Hall of the U. S. Army is on board as an observer for the army.

If weather conditions remain favorable the ship is expected to arrive at St. Louis tomorrow morning between 7 and 9 o'clock.

BETTER THAN RUBIES—
Search the Scriptures; for in them
ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of me.—
John 5:39.

Is It An Accident?

The United States maintains the most comprehensive system of public education in the world.The per capita income in the United States is higher than for any other nation. Farmers of the United States produce per worker 2.3 times what the farmer of the United Kingdom produces; 2.5 times what the German farmer produces; 3.2 times
what the French farmer produces, 6.5 times what the Italian farmer produces. Is it an accident?Farmers of the United States send their children to school less regularly and fewer days per year and fewer years than commercial, clerical, banking and professional classes.Agricultural workers constitute 28 percent of the total of occupational workers and get 17.4 percent of the national income. Commercial, clerical, banking, professional and miscellaneous classes constitute 32 per cent of the total of occupational workers and get 40 percent of the national income. Is it an accident?California enrolls a higher percentage of the population in high school than any other State. The State university at Berkeley enrolls twice as many farm bred students as any other State university.Out of the 50 agricultural counties in the United States realizing the highest net income California has 13and out of the 10 highest counties California has 4. Is it an accident?

Half Taxed—Half Untaxed

Advocates of public ownership schemes use as one of their strongest arguments, the statement that states, counties or cities can borrow money cheaper than private companies because their bonds are "tax-exempt". In addition public property pays no taxes.The income from some $30,000-000,000 of such tax-exempt bonds now goes tax-free and the rest of us pay additional taxes to make up this loss to the government.If public ownership was extended to various lines of industry as advocated by two constitutional amendments proposed in Georgia, the tax assessment roll would shrink and the burden of taxation on remaining taxable property would grow heavier and heavier as city, county and state functions were enlarged.Advocates of public ownership will find that it will be impossible in this country to maintain the right of private property for half the people while taking over under public ownership the property of the other half.Ultimately we would face a situation where the principal business of those holding office would be how to collect tax revenue from those not holding office in order to meet the public payroll.

ITS BATTLE CRYExecutive Council Of American Federation Of Labor Calls For Crusade For Industrial Democracy

Industry Must Organize To Govern
Itself, To Impose Upon Itself
Tasks, Rules And OrdersBy H. E. SWISHER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)Portland, Ore., Oct. 1.—A call to "all who have eyes to see" to join the American Federation of Labor in "a great crusade for industrial democracy" was sounded today by the Federation's executive council in submitting its report to labor's annual convention here."Henceforth the organization of the workers must mean — enlightened participation in a democracy of industry whose purpose must be the extension of freedom, the enfranchisement of the producer as such,
the rescue of industry from chaos, profiteering and purely individual whim, and from the domination of incompetent political bodies," said the council.The threat of State invasion of industrial life is real. Such ignorant encroachments as the Esch-Cummins act, the Kansas Court of Industrial Relations and the Colorado Industrial Commission act, each a blundering gesture of Government acting under the spur of organized propaganda or of political appetite for power, are examples of what industry has to bear. Trade unionism must lead the way for true progress, even at the cost of being branded as reactionary."Industry must organize to govern itself, to impose upon itself tasks and rules and to bring order into its own house. Industry must bring order to itself constructively, or it will have an order thrust upon it which would be demoralizing, if not fatal. Our people cannot live and thrive under the regime of bureaucracy which threatens unless industry solves its own problems. Industry must find itself. Industry must save itself."To the farmers of the country the council suggested that "agriculture, the great life giving twin of industry, must find its way through to orderless and justice by adoption of substantially the same means we advocate for industry. It is our hope that the farmers will continue their work of organization and that we may have and give assistance in pushing forward the program upon which we believe depends our future national well being and safety.""We commit ourselves to greater efforts in the organization of all workers. We urge no new formula no new philosophy; we urge only a great consciousness of purpose and a definite air towards its more rapid accomplishment."With this prelude, the council proceeded to a report and discussion of the work of the past year and to make recommendations on several important questions of labor policy.
A digest of these follows:All local labor bodies were urged to demand Congressional adoption and submission to the States of the proposed amendment to enable anti-child labor laws to be passed.The council repeated its advocacy indorsed by the 1922 convention, of adoption of a constitution amendment providing that if the Supreme Court nullifies a law of Congress, it shall remain a law if repassed by

A pitch-in dinner was enjoyed at the noon hour, after which it was decided to hold their reunion next year the last Sunday in August at Flatrock Cave near Shelbyville.

The Milroy Methodist church was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon, at 2:45 o'clock, when Miss Camella Mansfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mansfield, became the bride of Eugene S. Fishel. Ferns, honeysuckle and fall flowers were banked around the altar and an arch of leaves and ferns was formed at the center of the altar where the service was performed by the Rev. R. R. Cross, pastor of the church, who used the ring ceremony.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, was gown in white crepe-de-chine and wore a tulle veil caught with pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Florene Hood was maid of honor and wore a gown of peach georgette crepe and a silver head band. She carried an arm bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids were the Misses Mildred Booth, Maurita Buell, Dorothy Cady, Yuma Houghland, Leone Downs and Miss Eleanor Everroads, of Franklin. They all were colored organdies with silver bands around their hair and carried bouquets of white carnations and ferns. Carl Higgins of Seymour was best man and the ushers were the Misses Dorothy Billings, Pauline Piper, and Helen Mills, who wore white dresses and corsage bouquets of white carnations and ferns.

Miss Emily Morgan, accompanied by Mrs. Elbert Morris, pianist, sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony. For the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. Morris played the "Lohengrin" wedding march. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

In the lovely decorations of the home, the predominating color scheme was yellow and white. In the dining room above the table hung a large white wedding bell. The centerpiece for the table was the wedding cake surrounded by yellow candles. Yellow and white brick ice cream, with the wedding bell in the center, white cake and mints were served to about eight-five guests. Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Fishel left on a wedding trip, the bride being dressed in a pretty creation of brown crepe. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends in Hope, Ind., where Mr. Fishel is employed.

The out-of-town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Everroad, Mrs. Frances Shultz, of Franklin, Ind.; Mrs. Miranda E. Fishel, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. E. Heilman, Miss Kathryn D. The remaining guests were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rigor, Richard Rafferty, Charles Lowe, and Ralph Hawkins, all of Connersville.

Howard Kennedy, living south of this city, was delightfully surprised Sunday, when his friends and relatives gathered at his home with well filled baskets and reminded him of his seventeenth birthday. At noon a bountiful dinner was served and the dining table was prettily decorated for the occasion with fall flowers and a large birthday cake adorned with seventeen lighted candles. The honored guest received several nice and useful presents. MOORES TO DIRECT GRAND JURY PROBE actions the governor has had with the bank.

What ever evidence Condo has, he is keeping to himself. "It will all come out before the grand jury," he said.

Sitting as an unofficial court of inquiry, the Republican state committee was prepared to go into every detail of the governor's financial difficulties. The purpose of the inquiry is to fix the party's attitude toward the governor. The result is only a matter of conjecture.

Members of the state committee and party leaders from all over the state flocked to Indianapolis Sunday for the conference, admittedly one of the most serious in the history of the Republican party in Indiana.

Clyde A. Walb, state chairman was closeted with various party workers until a late hour last night. He announced that the committee is determined to see that the governor gets a square deal, and all the rumors which have been current since the governor's financial crash will be given a thorough airing.

One angle, which thus far has been kept in the background, will be gone into in detail. That is the question of to what extent, if any, state funds have been involved in the McCray difficulties.

Ora Davies, state treasurer, has been asked to appear before the committee to tell what he knows. Senator James E. Watson and Postmaster General New were expected here for the conference.

WATER, LIGHT BILLS DUE

lators who seek to impeach the governor for his alleged abuse of power in his fight against the "invisible empire", mass meetings were in progress throughout the state today. Speakers were sent into nearly every county by W. D. McBee, legislative leader. They urged the people to vote in defiance of the governor.

"County officials including sheriffs, have been instructed by the election commission to do their duty and go ahead with the election according to law," McAllister said.

At the same time Governor Walton ordered every county sheriff to padlock the polls and warned election officials against attempting to hold a referendum.

"There may be bloodshed, although I dread to say it," Governor Walton stated. "But there will be no election."

"If there is bloodshed, it can be placed at the door of newspapers which have caused this trouble. If the Muskogee Phoenix, the Oklahoma City Oklahoman and its echo, the Oklahoma News and the Tulsa Tribune had been locked up and their keys thrown into the river six weeks ago we would not be having this trouble today."

SPEEDERS CAUGHT IN POLICE TOILS

Clevenger was arrested Sunday afternoon on Main street, near the Christian church, by Police Chief Blackburn, the charge being for speeding. All three will be arraigned tonight in police court.

Clyde Kitchen of Milroy, captain of the Horse Thief Detective association, brought two prisoners to jail Sunday night, each being charged with intoxication. The two were high school boys of Greensburg, and their last names were Stiers and Brown. Two other companions escaped, but appeared this morning and the four were released after a lecture. It is said that they were in a machine in Milroy, and were disorderly. The boys said they had some wine.

NEW FIREMEN

ALL BUT ONE CAR REMOVED

Smoker Believed To Hold Most Of Bodies Of Wreck Victims

Casper, Wyo., Oct. 1. —One car, a smoker of Burlington passenger train No. 30, which plunged into flooded Cole creek Thursday night still remains beneath the quick sand of the creek.

With the other four cars above water and sand, rescue crews have failed to add to the five bodies which had been recovered early Saturday.

Not one bit of wreckage now rests on the smoker, which is believed to contain most of the bodies of those drowned, and workmen hope to have this car lifted sufficiently to be searched before the end of the day.

The large burner at the bottom of the oven gives direct action and affords an intense heat. Whether used with natural or artificial gas, an even blue flame is maintained because of the automatic air feeder, and all fumes escape through the exit flue, leaving absolutely no odor.

The Mascot Combination Range surpasses other ranges in another important particular. Years of study by experts have perfected a gas oven that is incomparably more efficient than any ever before devised; at the same time the patented flue construction that put the Mascot Coal and Wood Range in a class by itself has been maintained intact. In the Mascot Combination Range, where coal or wood is used, THE HEAT STILL GOES ALL AROUND THE OVEN. So in the Mascot Combination the makers have fully realized their ambition to make a Range that would be the last word in efficiency in the use of gas, coal or wood.

TRUSTY SHOTGUN IS OILED UP FOR ACTION

Hoosierland Will be Sportsman's Paradise This Autumn—Take George Mannfeld's Word For It

THE BEST EVER FOR QUAIL

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—With the return of the season when crisp breezes make the blood tingle, the call of the open is sending your true Hoosier to the garret to get down the trusty shotgun and oil it up for action.

For Hoosierdom will be a sportsman's paradise this autumn.

Take George Mannfeld's word for it—we're going to have more quail to miss this fall than ever before in his memory. And he ought to know for he's state director of fish and game conservation.

Mild winters, good breeding seasons, protection by the farmers, and observation of game laws by the public are responsible for this unusual crop.

Not only quail—but hunters will see more bushy-tails scurrying out of view around tree trunks.

LABOR TO SOUND ITS BATTLE CRY

two-thirds of both houses of Congress.

A "propaganda of destructive criticism" has been aimed at the trade union movement, "frankly revolutionary and having for its ultimate object not only destruction of trade unionism but the eventual overthrow of the democratic Government of the United States," the council said. The catchword of this propaganda has been "amalgamation," it was stated, referring to those who favor "one big union."

"Congress will be called upon to decide between the greed of unfair employers and the self-preservation of our people," in dealing with the immigration problem, the report said, pointing out "the danger to our institutions of immigration is not restricted to a greater extent than is provided in the present law." The convention was urged to go on record in favor of much stricter limitation, even for complete prohibition of immigration for a time. Commenting on the demand for an Americanization program the council said:

The council recommended that the A. F. of L. participate heartily in all efforts being made in a time of prosperity like the present to prepare against an unemployment period. All wage earners were urged to send to headquarters best thoughts and suggestion on means of preventing unemployment.

Emphasizing the importance of credit in the industrial life of the nation, the council reported adversely on the plan to establish a central labor bank in Washington D. C., to co-ordinate the activities of labor banks throughout the country. It pointed out that the twenty-three to start are organized on different plans and that it would be impossible to bring them together in a unit. The central bank project is, therefore, "not only impracticable, but undesirable," the council said.

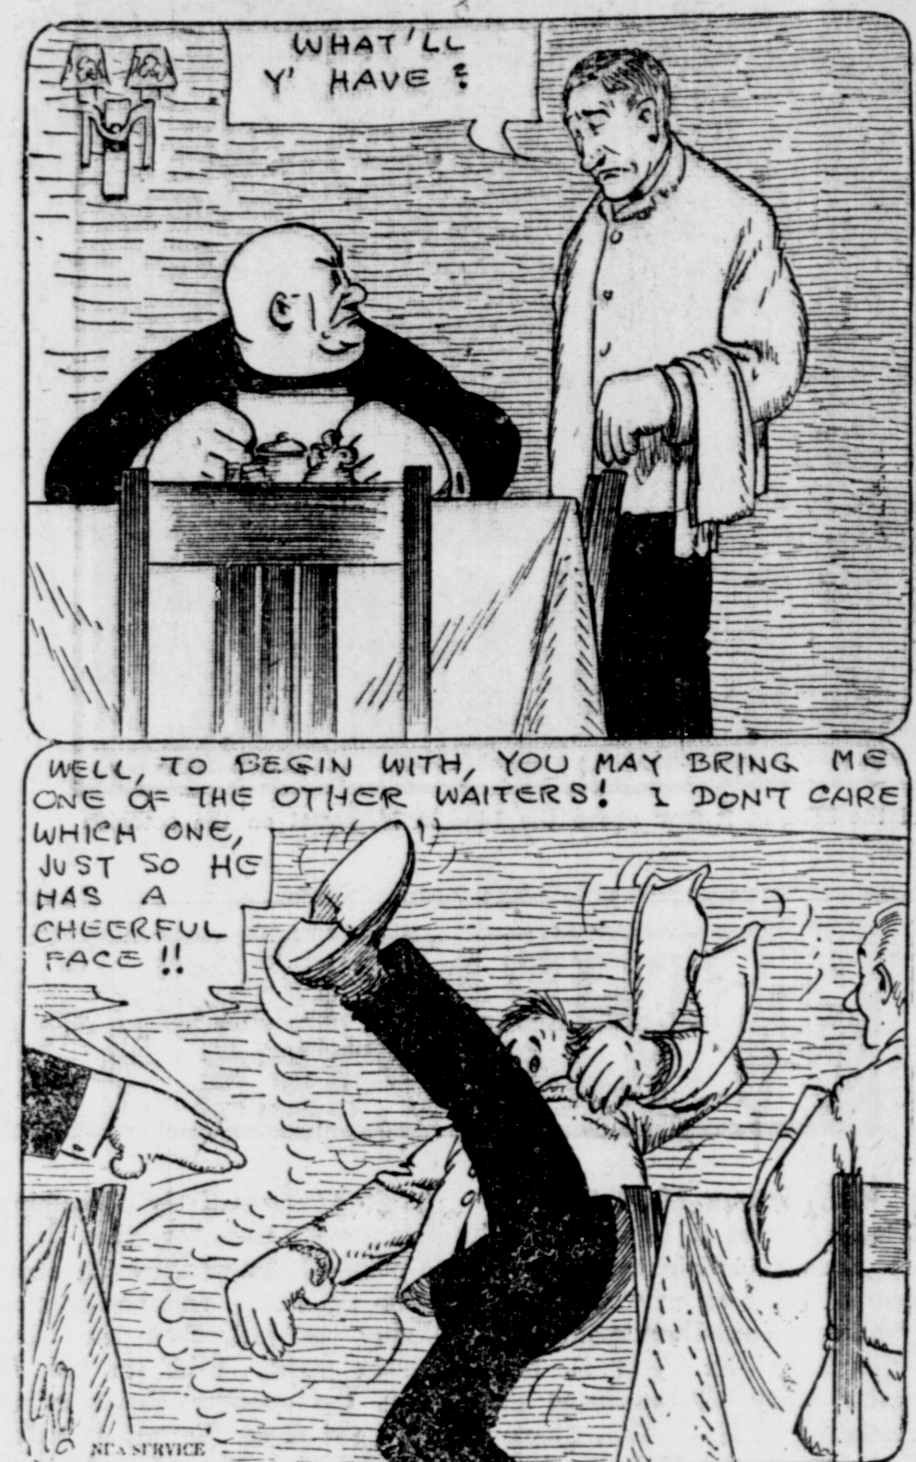

Pointing to the fact that "through the activities of the A. F. of L. Non Partisan Campaign Committee twenty-three candidates for United States Senator who had been loyal to labor and the people were elected and eleven reactionary Senators defeated, and the 170 House members were elected, either because the A. F. of L. supported them or opposed their rivals," the council advocated that the convention provide more funds for similar activities in the 1924 campaign so that "a most thorough campaign can be inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion."

"Kansas once again is heading toward freedom" as the result of the Supreme Court's decision "dismembering" the Industrial Court, the council said. In view of the decision "the only purpose now being served by the remnants of ex-Governor Allen's law is to provide jobs for his political appointees on this court and to squander the money of the taxpayers of Kansas." Governor Davis was commended for his efforts to abrogate the law entirely.

The so-called "American plan" or open shop was condemned as an effort to put workers into slavery, and the council declared that the successful strikes of nearly 2,000,000 wage-earners in the United States are responsible for the prosperity this country is enjoying, since

EVERETT TRUE

By Condo

these strikes were adjusted by collective bargaining."

The Klan was condemned on the ground that "it is destructive of that freedom and devotion to the principles of liberty which we regard as the first essentials in democratic civilization. We believe that no trade unionist can consistently participate in the activities of the Ku Klux Klan or any similar organization, and we unhesitatingly denounce its efforts to supplant ordered government, to promote religious intolerance, racial antagonisms and bigotry."

The effort to organize fascist groups in the United States was denounced as "a token of hostility to our democratic institutions." Foreign-born workers were urged to "refrain from joining the fascist or any similar movement."

An exhaustive review of the shopmen's strike and the Wilkerson injunction was made. The council declared the injunction "marked a new advance of the courts of equity in their usurpation of power to control industrial controversies," which may provide "a tyrannical precedent in other cases."

The Railroad Labor Board and the Esch-Cummins act were roundly condemned and their abrogation urged. Nullification of the District of Columbia minimum wage law for women should stimulate the organization of women, not alone for their own protection, but also for protection of men wage earners, the council said.

In a comprehensive review of the work of the Sixty-seventh Congress the council declared it "will find an unenviable place in history. Reaction and incompetence, backed apparently by no other thought than personal and partisan political advantage, made it impotent to remedy any of the evils troubling the people of our country."

One of the greatest dangers to the country, the report said, is legislation by "lame ducks," or defeated members of Congress.

Firm Plump Flesh!

MANY are the eyes that are turned to gaze with keen admiration on the well developed, healthy girl no matter where she may be—on the rapidly moving thoroughfare or gliding gracefully over the dance floor.

All eyes turn because we all appreciate the girl with the figure so firm and plump—the girl with radiantly red cheeks, cheeks that carry a touch of roses from nature's own garden—the girl with the sparkling eyes, keen and sharp—the girl with buoyancy and the swing of youth.

Not necessarily an out-of-doors girl. Just a girl with ever increasing blood cells. Just a girl filled with the vim and vigor of youth.

S. S. S., since 1826, has stood for increased blood cells. S. S. S. means restored strength—rekindled vitality—added energy. Take S. S. S. and watch the bloom of youth return to your cheeks. Watch that flabby, ill nourished flesh fade away before flesh that is firm and plump. Red blood cells will do it and S. S. S. will build them. It contains only pure vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is more economical.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Rushville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. W. A. Wylie, 824 N. Arthur St., Rushville, gave the following statement September 20, 1915: "My trouble began with a clutching digging pain directly across my kidneys and over my hips. The pain was terrible and I had to be given pain-easing tablets by the doctor to relieve it. I was unable to do my housework for a week and was in misery. Others of my family had taken Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent results so I began using them. I did not have to use a whole box before the pain let up and soon disappeared."

On November 4, 1920, Mrs. Wylie said: "I still have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I haven't had to use them lately as my cure has been a lasting one."

THEATRES MOVIES

Night Scenes At Princess

What are said to be some of the most remarkable night scenes ever filmed will be seen in "The Go-Getter," a Paramount-Cosmopolitan production based on Peter B. Kyne's popular story of the same name, directed by E. H. Griffith, which will be shown at the Princess Theatre today and Tuesday. These particular scenes in the picture were filmed in Lagn Island, N. Y., from Mineola to Hicksville, and while they were being "shot" the company worked for three "days" from sunset to sunrise.

One scene in particular is said to be a revelation in photography. This picture a race at night between an aeroplane and a speeding express train, culminating when the plane forges ahead and lights alongside the railroad tracks several hundred yards in advance of the train. One of the most melodramatic incidents in the picture then takes place as T. Roy Barnes, features in the picture, flags the oncoming express, which is "shot" while going at the rate of forty miles an hour. The train used in this scene was chartered from the Long Island branch of the Pennsylvania railroad. Three huge motor generating sets were used in the filming of these scenes, which were photographed by Harold Wenstrom.

Eena Owen is featured with Mr. Barnes in "The Go-Getter," as also are William Norris, Tom Yewis and Louis Wolheim. Frederick Stanley, John Carr and Frank Currier are included in an excellent cast.

"The Critical Age," Mystic

A romantic love story set amid a background of Canadian forests with plenty of thrills and humor intermingled, can be found in "The Critical Age," an adaptation of Ralph Connor's well known novel, "Glen-garry School-days," the feature attraction at the Mystic Theatre today and Tuesday. Ernest Shipman, producer, took his company from New York clear up to the upper reaches of the Ottawa River upon the exact locality as called for in Mr. Connor's novel.

The story is that of a son of a poor farmer who has adopted the habit of figuratively dreaming his life away. However, when Bob Kerr, a polished and wealthy city chap, enters the scene and begins monopolizing the girl, then the dreamer shows fight. With the aid of his dog, the country dreamer rescues the girl from the rapids after she had been left to her fate by her companion the city fellow. The wild chase by an angry bear and the final rescue of the girl's father, whose vote was needed in Ottawa to defeat an abnoxious law, brings the country lad out of the dreamer class and makes him a member of the girl's family.

One of the principal actors in "The Critical Age" is a big Belgian Police dog, who stages a thrilling rescue and who supplies a lot of the excitement and suspense of the story. The scenes in and about the school, it is said, are extremely laughable.

INCREASE IN ENROLLMENT

Indiana University's Student Body Numbers Nearly 3,600

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 1.—With a few late students still straggling in, the enrollment of the University of Indiana totals nearly 3,600, an increase of 600 over last year's enrollment.

Three hundred twenty of the 3,600 are enrolled in the medical school at Indianapolis. The remainder are enrolled in various departments here.

Indiana is not a co-ed school, registrar's figures show. Men have a majority of 590 in the registration at Bloomington.

WINTER NOT FAR AWAY

Attica, Ind., Oct. 1.—Weather prophets here have seen a sure sign of approaching cold weather. Thousands of swallows have been observed flying southward. One day a flock which was a quarter of a mile wide and required two hours to pass a given point was seen flying southward. This, according to old citizens of Attica, is an indication that the icy breath of winter is not far away.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

Not Veneer

"I HAVE yet to find a Standard Oil service station attendant who fails to reflect the ideals of service set forth in Standard Oil Company (Indiana) advertising."

Such was the comment of an observant man who had been expressing his opinion of service in industry.

It is but a composite of the general feeling among patrons of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The spirit of service is highly developed in every employe of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), whether he wears overalls or occupies a place on the directorate.

Every man and woman of the 27,000 employes making up the personnel of this Company is obsessed with but one ambition—to do his or her part in making the Company greater in size and in service.

Such a condition cannot prevail under the lash. If it is to endure the desire to serve must be inherent in the individual.

It is a natural development that follows fair dealing, camaraderie, pleasant working conditions, just treatment, skillful management—in short, intensive organization modernized to the last degree.

That the employe in overalls should reflect the Company's ideals of service is the result of highly intensified organization.

It is eloquent of the spirit prevailing throughout the organization—of the complete understanding of purpose, between the executives and those who are on the firing line making the last turn in the great cycle of Standard Oil service.

Where complete understanding exists there are no obstacles too difficult to overcome.

Complete understanding between the management and the employe has made the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) big in size and big in service.

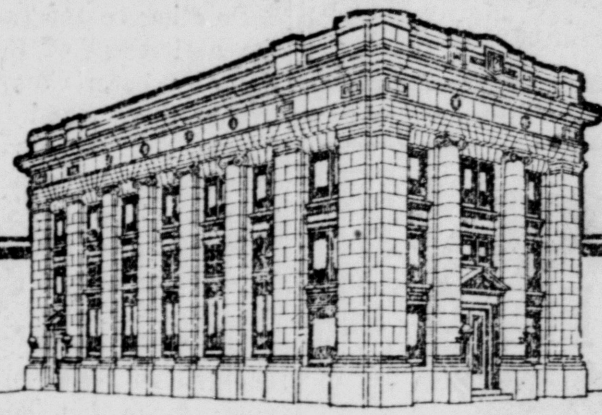

Complete understanding between the Company and the thirty million people of the Middle West has caused the list of shareholders in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to increase in four years' time from 4,600 to 42,706—not one of whom owns as much as 6% of the total.

United States Commissioner Ap-

Marion Bank Attorney Will Not
Have Witnesses Ready Until Then
—State Committee Meets

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1. —
Judge James A. Collins in criminal
court today appointed Charles
W. Moores, United States commissioner, as special prosecutor to conduct the grand jury investigation of Governor McCray's financial affairs.

It was agreed that the investiga-
Friday morning. Judge Collins said
he would instruct the grand jury
at that time.

ahead with the probe today but it developed that Gus Gondo, attorney
for the Marion, Ind., National Bank,
which is seeking the investigation,
did not have his witnesses here to
testify today.

Gondo said officials of the bank
could testify today if necessary, but
that it would take several days to
subpoena some of the witnesses
from remote parts of the state.

McCray at noon refused to accept
to meet with them during their "informal probe."

"I would be very glad to meet with
the committee or duly appointed
time to discuss state administration
matters or matters of party policy,"
he informed Chairman Wall of the
state committee.

"I do not care, however, to discuss my personal misfortune or financial difficulties, except with those
who are directly interested."

solutely no intention of resigning.

"I have gone through two and one half years of successful administration," he said. "I certainly can continue now."

The governor said he was injury wants to know. He indicated
personally and tell everything the
jury wants to know. He indicated
time favor his volunteering to testify.

under way behind closed doors
shortly after noon.

During the morning, members of
the committee and party workers
from all parts of the state milled
under way behind closed doors
erin where the meeting is being held.

ion national bank will appear be-

Prosecutor Says Affidavits Will
Prominent Farmers

Several arrests were made over
the week-end and further affidavits
are expected to be filed, following a
series of events that took place.
Three automobile drivers were
caught in a net that is being spread
and fast driving.

A fistie encounter on the streets
down town Saturday afternoon
Police Chief Blackburn, who witnessed the affair, and separated the men, the participants were William
A. Mull and Lon Coons.

The men, both of whom are of
to a good start, when the officer interfered. The trouble was said to be an old grudge. The men are neighbors and live southwest of
here. No arrests was made by the
officer, but Prosecutor Ketchum
stated that he expected charges
would be filed.

Patrolman Lakin arrested Dora
on charges of improperly driving his
automobile in the business district
on Saturday afternoon, and on

Miss Jean Herkless Elected Secretary-Treasurer of Indiana High School Press Association

Four staff members of the R. H. S.
Annual and a faculty advisor attended the press convention at Franklin
last Friday and Saturday and
brought home great honors, as Jean Herkless, literary editor on the staff
and one of the delegates, was elected
High School Press Association for the coming year. Since there were
is quite a distinction to have one of
the local delegates elected. Miss Herkless is a senior.

and snappy ideas for their book this
a place at the third annual convention next year and one which the
people of Rushville will be proud to
are many surprises in store for prospective purchasers of this Annual.

heard such prominent speakers as R.
H. Nason, Art Crafts Guild, Chicago
Ill., R. P. Maplesden of the Stafford
Engraving Co., Indianapolis, Ind.,
Lee White of the Detroit News, and
Senator Watson. With such ideas,
suggestions and advice, this should
members of the staff.

Searching Parties Seek Slayer of Muncie Policeman

until last midnight, with dawn today
resumed the man hunt for Claude
Michaels, 46, who at noon Sunday
shot and fatally wounded Patrolman
Tony Hellis, junior member of the Muncie police force, firing three
shots into his body and then escaping.

automobiles joined the police in the search for the man, who after running a short distance from the scene
of the shooting, was seen to stop and
reload one of the two revolvers he
out-building half a mile from his
home. This was the last seen of him
but so quickly was the net spread
dent the fugitive is still hiding somewhere in Muncie.

Patrolman Hellis and Lafin had answered the call of a woman asking
them to come to the Michaels home
where Michaels was said to have
threatened to shoot his wife.

Berlin, Oct. 1. — "The army now
seize the Kuestrin fortress, near Frankfurt," an official statement
said.

The government statement admitted an extensive nationalist out-
break, in which organized groups attacked the fortress as beginning of
a plan to seize military bases
throughout the Frankfurt area.

It was claimed, however, that
government forces are in control of
the situation and the strong rein-

a Large Crowd

A. P. Wagoner, Director, Hopes to
Month at Memorial Park

A large crowd attended the concert Sunday afternoon by the Community orchestra at the coliseum in Memorial park, when 35 musicians
under the leadership of A. P. Wagoner, rendered a most enjoyable program before an appreciative audience.

The concert marked the close of the park for the season, and between
grounds during the afternoon.

The program rendered by the musicians was varied, and numbers that
were especially applauded were solos
by William Polk on the cornet, William Stiers on the violin, and a duet
by Harry Lucas and William Polk,
on cornets.

Orchestral numbers were exceedingly well played, and the Hunting
Scene number was descriptive in every detail, including the barking of
the dogs, and the shooting of the
game. "Faust" and the "Poet and Peasant Overture" were other numbers by the orchestra that were applauded.

Mr. Wagoner assembled the musicians from all parts of the county,
and he expects to continue the organization, even on a larger scale
next summer. It is planned to hold
one or two concerts a month in the
park next season, and judging from
the interest that was taken Sunday,
the concerts will be more than appreciated.

Persons attended yesterday from
Muncie, St. Paul and surrounding
towns in the county.

On account of a slight expense incurred in bringing music, electric lights and other incidentals, an offering was taken at the doors, and the
contributions more than paid the
outstanding bills.

Mr. Wagoner today desired to express his appreciation to the people of the county for attending the
George C. Wyatt and Company of
this city, who donated the use of chairs in prechops and for the con-

Mary L. Sharp Seeks Sale And Di-

A petition for partition of real
estate has been filed in the circuit
court by Mary L. Sharp, by her next friend, Burl Kennedy, against Essie Sharp, et al., the petition being for the sale and division of property located in Arlington.

The suit of the Marion Building
and Investment company against Cyrus Hillgoss, a complaint for foreclosure of a mortgage, has been
dismissed by the plaintiff.

There was no business of much importance before the court today, as
the trial of the State against Lester
Caron, which was scheduled for today, was called off, on account of the defendant pleading guilty. Sheriff Hunt left this morning for the Penal farm, where he took the defendant, who will serve a six months
term on a charge of unlawfully
transporting liquor.

sion of local talent.

The cast has been well chosen school students. The leads are taken

Albert Cotton, supported by Miss Magdalene Arbuckle, Gene Kelly, Bill Worthington, Miss Lillian Wilkinson, Jack Neilly and others.

The play was written by Kenyon
Nicholson, who is press agent for Stewart Walker and a nephew of the famous writer, Meredith Nicholson.
He wrote the play only a short time
ago and gave it to Denning Havens,
of this city, to try out. This will
be the opening performance of the
show, thus giving Rushville something new in the way of local talent shows.

Denning Havens, who has successfully directed many plays both

ing filed a suit on an account and
proceedings in attachment against
C. A. Marcum, who rooms at 509
North Main street, with the demand
of the action being for $34.10 judg-

The attachment was served, and

a bill for gasoline and oil used by the defendant in his automobile. The
attachment also called for the ma-

All forces, including militia, special
police and "citizens volunteer army"
were included in the writ.

Twelve of the governor's special
police were guarding election supplies and Sheriff Sanford said the
election would be held. "The supplies
will be distributed before night," the
sheriff said.

One hundred thousand men, according to Governor J. C. Walton's
calculations took up arms in Oklahoma today to carry out the execu-
tive's orders that there should be no

At the election, officially called
and then banned by the governor,
voters were to cast their ballots on
an initiated law providing that the
legislature might convene itself with-
out an official summons from the executive. Governor Walton declared
his enemies, made by his militaristic
fight against the Ku Klux Klan, agi-

general; W. C. McAllister, secretary
of the state election board, and other
officials joined in saying the election would be held; in ordering bal-
lots printed, and making other arrangements to keep the polls open.
Short said "every voter should go
to the polls quietly and peaceably to
cast his ballot as his conscience dictates."

Printing presses throughout the
state were rushing to turn out ballots for the election.

The governor's special police to prevent the polls from opening included:

guard of 4,000 men, now ordered mobilized.

A volunteer army of 75,000 men.
The governor's special police of secret operatives which he said was composed of 22,000.

The governor said that while the
polls closed, it would be held in
readiness in case any rioting developed. His special police will be stationed at doors of the polls.

(Purdue University Agricultural Experiment Station)

The development of the corn crop of Indiana is about two weeks behind normal. In certain sections considerable frost damage has occurred. All over the state there are fields here and there that are still green. Furthermore, recent weather conditions have not been favorable to rapid ripening of immature corn.

nor to the drying out of corn that is ripe. Considering these various conditions and factors farmers should take immediate steps to make sure of a supply of good seed corn for next year. Even where conditions at this time are bad, it may be possible to insure satisfactory seed corn by going through the field and selecting the better ears and putting them away where they can be properly dried and made safe from further damage. We can not foresee when there may be a severe frost or how much wet, sultry weather there may be that will cause spoilage in the field.

While, of course, selecting ears as nearly mature as possible, it is highly important to make sure that they come from healthy, vigorous stalks and clean shanks showing sound tissues where the ear breaks off. One must keep on the lookout and avoid ears that have been prematurely ripened by disease. Under normal development the stalk remains green until after the ear is fully dented.

Where corn is not already well matured and it is necessary to take sappy ears for seed, it will be especially important to completely separate the ears in the place of storage and to provide ample air circulation. Corn that is not fully dented and partly dry will spoil in a room with stagnant air, especially where the ears are in contact. There should be a breeze passing through the room. With proper care at the start, such selected corn will soon be out of danger of further injury.

What the rest of the season will be can not be foretold. We do know, however, that corn in backward and that the weather has been unfavorable, and should not take a chance on being caught without good sense. The lessons of 1917 should not be forgotten.

Will be Held at St. Louis Last Three Days of This Week
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 1.—The Pulitzer air races, scheduled to be held here today, Tuesday and Wednesday, will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The seven races will be held three days later because of rains Sunday which flooded St. Louis Flying Field, at Bridgeton, Mo., eight miles away. The Pulitzer 200 kilometer race for the world's speed championship will be held Saturday instead of Wednesday as originally scheduled.

Flooded conditions of the grounds put the field in a condition where it would have been dangerous for the fliers to alight at the high speeds necessary, a committee of the air board, army and navy officials decided before announcing the postponement.

The sessions of the Air Institute of the Aeronautical bureau of the Chamber of Commerce will be held on the first three days of this week as scheduled.

Artist demonstration.
Dispatches from Dusseldorf today placed the dead at sixteen, including twelve separatists, two police and two "German" police.
DANIEL
Wounded were estimated at from 50 to 100 or more. Order had been restored today. French patrols marched through the streets all night, rigorously downing all attempts at disorders or gatherings.

The French arrested a number of Germans charging them with inciting riot, which started yesterday afternoon when a huge gathering of separatists, estimated as high as 30,000 was holding a demonstration near the center of the city listening to speakers plead for establishment of a Rhenish republic, independent of the German Reich.

The Reich's cabinet was in session last night with Chancellor Stresemann presiding to consider the serious situation.
The cabinet also considered outlines of an important speech which the chancellor will deliver in the Reichstag tomorrow.

Bavarian Monarchy Seen

Munich, Oct. 1.—"Monarchy will be proclaimed in Bavaria very soon" well informed persons told the correspondent of the United Press today.

These persons, close to the Bavarian internal situation, believed a move to restore the Wittelsbach family to its pre-war status already is under way. They pointed to the enormous demonstration given the former crown Prince Rapperecht and his wife when they arrived here yesterday as proof of the popularity of the former royal family.

KING BEN THOUGHT DEAD

Held at House of David Colony Limits to This Belief
(By United Press)
Boston Harbor, Mich., Oct. 1.—Belief that "King" Benjamin Purnell, leader of the House of David, is dead was strengthened today following the unsuccessful raid early yesterday on the colony here.
More than 100 state troopers and deputy sheriffs participated in the hunt, which extended to every house in the colony and surrounding territory.

State officials are anxious to locate Purnell to have him appear before the one man grand jury at St. Joseph, Mich., tomorrow when investigation of the affairs of the colony is resumed.

While Benjamin was not unearthed all of his clothing was found. This fact, leads Sheriff George C. Bridgman who directed one section of the raid, to believe that the Shiloh leader is dead.

Where would we be anyway if it weren't for advertising?

What a lot of time advertising saves us! We need something. We see it advertised. And we go straight from where we are now to where the article is sold.

Have you ever gone around from place to place seeking for something which you knew existed but which nobody else seemed to know anything about, not even the storekeepers? You have wasted an hour, maybe several hours, possibly half a day. You have worn out your patience, and before the end of the quest probably you began to figure that the thing which you sought was not, after all, so good as you thought it was, otherwise other people besides yourself would know something about it.

The manufacturer who advertises, invests his money, therefore, not alone to tell of the merits of his goods, but to save you time. The manufacturer who is willing to pay for advertising space in newspapers or magazines in order to point out to you where his merchandise is sold, so that you may get there quicker and buy it easier, is not going to skimp or cheat in manufacturing it.

After going to all the trouble and expense of telling you just where you may find it, he is going to see to it that when you do buy it, it is good enough so that you will buy it again.

And in making up your mind about merchandise which is advertised, consider this last thought—the manufacturer can well afford to make it as good as it can be made because one sale means hundreds, even thousands of others following naturally and costing him nothing extra.

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—Bible thoughts presented in a precise and clear manner.

Search the Scriptures; for in them
ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of me.—
John 5:39.

Is It An Accident?

The United States maintains the most comprehensive system of public education in the world. The per capita income in the United States is higher than for any other nation. Farmers of the United States produce per worker 2.3 times what the farmer of the United Kingdom produces; 2.5 times what the German farmer produces; 3.2 times what the French farmer produces, 6.5 times what the Italian farmer produces. Is it an accident?

Farmers of the United States send their children to school less regularly and fewer days per year and fewer years than commercial, clerical, banking and professional classes. Agricultural workers constitute 28 percent of the total of occupational workers and get 17.4 percent of the national income. Commercial, clerical, banking, professional and miscellaneous classes constitute 32 percent of the total of occupational workers and get 40 percent of the national income. Is it an accident?

California enrolls a higher percentage of the population in high school than any other State. The State university at Berkeley enrolls twice as many farm bred students as any other State university. Out of the 50 agricultural counties in the United States realizing the highest net income California has 13 and out of the 10 highest counties California has 4. Is it an accident?

Half Taxed—Half Untaxed
Advocates of public ownership schemes use as one of their strongest arguments, the statement that states, counties or cities can borrow money cheaper than private companies because their bonds are "tax-exempt". In addition public property pays no taxes. The income from some $30,000,000,000 of such tax-exempt bonds now goes tax-free and the rest of us pay additional taxes to make up this loss to the government. If public ownership was extended to various lines of industry as advocated by two constitutional amendments proposed in Georgia, the tax assessment roll would shrink and the burden of taxation on remaining taxable property would grow heavier and heavier as city, county and state functions were enlarged. Advocates of public ownership will find that it will be impossible in this country to maintain the right of private property for half the people while taking over under public ownership the property of the other half. Ultimately we would face a situation where the principal business of those holding office would be how to collect tax revenue from those not holding office in order to meet the public payroll.

The bad man never forgets to be bad, but the good man some times forgets to be good.

Cash income of American farmers from the sale of this year's crop will be about $200,000,000 more than from last year's, despite the slump in wheat prices, which makes some people wonder at the salty tears some of our best known demagogues are weeping in view of the farmer vote.

Some folks think twice before acting, and then forget to act.

Great Britain is a commercial country. She should use her thick fogs for stuffing mattresses.

London sculptors might try taking the thickest of the fog and carving statues on it.

If London fogs get thicker they may address post cards in raised letters for the postmen.

By adding flavoring to the thick London fogs they could put in tubes and sell for tooth paste.

Perhaps, in London barber shops, they just spread a little thick fog on for shaving lather.

It would be getting too foolish to say London fogs are so heavy they can't see the French plans.

Obituary

Thomas Willard Naden, son of Simeon and Ornetta Naden, was born near Neil's Creek postoffice, Jefferson county, Ind., Oct. 8, 1866.

Early in life he moved to Rush county, where he spent the remaining years of his life.

In September, 1888, he was united in marriage to Alice C. Morgan. To them were born one daughter, Mrs. Grace Price, and one son, Charles, both of this city.

He departed this life Sept. 21, 1923, aged 56 years 11 months, leaving to mourn his loss, his devoted wife and two children, an aged mother, four brothers, James E. George, Harvey, and Jesse Naden, and five sisters, Mrs. Orpha Reaver, Mrs. Ida Deeters, Mrs. Emma Havens, Mrs. Andrew Lindsay, and Mrs.

Chas. Jordan. One sister, Miss Ella, preceded him in death in 1906 and his father passed to that beyond in 1911.

Early in life he united with the Methodist church, and while not an active church member, he believed in the better things of life, which tend to mould true citizenship. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and Modern Woodmen lodges, who, with his many friends and neighbors, will miss his sunny smile.

We miss thee from our home dear, We miss thee from thy place, A shadow o'er our life is cast; We miss the sunshine of thy face, We miss the kind and willing hand Thy fond and earnest care, Our home is dark without thee, We miss thee everywhere.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Daily Republican Thursday, Oct. 1, 1908

Danny Ryan and family moved from North Harrison street to the Dillon property in North Perkins street.

A panic was narrowly averted at the Vaudeville theatre last night. During a performance about 8:30 o'clock some thoughtless person yelled "fire." In a second the people were on their feet and scrambling for the door. The house was crowded and the aisle was jammed with people trying to escape. Even the pianist left her position and rushed for the door. The women and some of the men in the house got excited, but fortunately the false report was corrected before any damage was done. Several men in the house who understood the situation, quieted the crowd and convinced them that there was no fire.

The strong Newcastle team will play the Connersville club at Connersville next Sunday and one of the best games of the season is anticipated. Carter, Halterman and Morgan, Rush county products on the team, will attract many Rushville rooters.

Mrs. Sel Webb, Mrs. Alice Bainbridge and Mrs. George Havens went to Connersville today to attend the W. R. C. meeting.

Col. E. H. Wolf and daughter, Mrs. Fannie Maupin, attended the funeral of John Clifford at Fairview yesterday.

Birney Spradling of Indianapolis was here last night for the Watson Club smoker.

At a meeting held at the court house last night it was definitely decided to hold a horse show here on October 20 and 21. First and Second streets will probably be used. First street for racing and Second street for the horse shows.

Miss Benah Meredith, who underwent an operation for appendicitis last week, is steadily improving.

Andy Stiffler has been appointed fire chief to succeed Homer Cole, who has resigned. He has appointed J. C. Gregg assistant.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. John D. Megee and Mrs. Margaret Boule at the home of Mrs. Megee in North Harrison street.

Enthusiasm! Well it was in every nook and corner of the Republican headquarters last night. The more the three hundred men at the meeting of the Young Men's Watson club smoked, the more they enjoyed it. President Walter Newhouse presided at the meeting and Albert Capp and Sam Anderson passed out all the cigars the folks wanted. Those who spoke were Judge Sparks, Capt. John K. Cowdy, Rev. J. F. Gillespie, A. L. Gary, A. E. Martin and Prof. J. H. Williams.

Executive Council Of American Federation Of Labor Calls For Crusade For Industrial Democracy

Industry Must Organize To Govern Itself, To Impose Upon Itself Tasks, Rules And Orders

By H. E. SWISHER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Portland, Ore., Oct. 1.—A call to "all who have eyes to see" to join the American Federation of Labor in "a great crusade for industrial democracy" was sounded today by the Federation's executive council in submitting its report to labor's annual convention here.

"Henceforth the organization of the workers must mean — enlightened participation in a democracy of industry whose purpose must be the extension of freedom, the enfranchisement of the producer as such, the rescue of industry from chaos, profiteering and purely individual whim, and from the domination of incompetent political bodies," said the council.

The threat of State invasion of industrial life is real. Such ignorant encroachments as the Esch-Cummings act, the Kansas Court of Industrial Relations and the Colorado Industrial Commission act, each a blundering gesture of Government acting under the spur of organized propaganda or of political appetite for power, are examples of what industry has to bear. Trade unionism must lead the way for true progress, even at the cost of being branded as reactionary.

"Industry must organize to govern itself, to impose upon itself tasks and rules and to bring order into its own house. Industry must bring order to itself constructively, or it will have an order thrust upon it which would be demoralizing, if not fatal. Our people cannot live and thrive under the regime of bureaucracy which threatens unless industry solves its own problems. Industry must find itself. Industry must save itself."

To the farmers of the country the council suggested that "agriculture, the great life giving twin of industry, must find its way through to orderless and justice by adoption of substantially the same means we advocate for industry. It is our hope that the farmers will continue their work of organization and that we may have and give assistance in pushing forward the program upon which we believe depends our future national well being and safety."

"We commit ourselves to greater efforts in the organization of all workers. We urge no new formula no new philosophy; we urge only a great consciousness of purpose and a definite air towards its more rapid accomplishment."

With this prelude, the council proceeded to a report and discussion of the work of the past year and to make recommendations or several important questions of labor policy. A digest of these follows:

All local labor bodies were urged to demand Congressional adoption and submission to the States of the proposed amendment to enable anti-child labor laws to be passed.

The council repeated its advocacy endorsed by the 1922 convention, of adoption of a constitution amendment providing that if the Supreme Court nullifies a law of Congress, it shall remain a law if repassed by

The former members of the W. A. S. and the E. W. T. clubs of Circleville held their annual reunion Sunday at Memorial park. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Barton Caldwell and family of Southport, Mr. and Mrs. John Simonds and family of Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Hall and family of Indianapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Yaw and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Booth and family of Milroy, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall of Shelbyville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Finney and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall of this city. A pitch-in dinner was enjoyed at the noon hour, after which it was decided to hold their reunion next year the last Sunday in August at Flatrock Cave near Shelbyville.

The Milroy Methodist church was the scene of a lovely wedding Sunday afternoon, at 2:45 o'clock, when Miss Camella Mansfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Mansfield, became the bride of Eugene S. Fishel. Ferns, honeysuckle and fall flowers were banded around the altar and an arch of leaves and ferns was formed at the center of the altar where the service was performed by the Rev. R. R. Cross, pastor of the church, who used the ring ceremony.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, was gowned in white crepe-de-chine and wore a tulle veil caught with pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Florene Hood was maid of honor and wore a gown of peach georgette crepe and a silver headband. She carried an arm bouquet of roses. The bridesmaids were the Misses Mildred Booth, Maurita Buell, Dorothy Cady, Yuna Houghland, Leone Downs and Miss Eleanor Everroads, of Franklin. They all were colored organdies with silver bands around their hair and carried bouquets of white carnations and ferns. Carl Higgins of Seymour was best man and the ushers were the Misses Dorothy Billings, Pauline Pinner, and Helen Mills, who wore white dresses and corsage bouquets of white carnations and ferns.

In the lovely decorations of the home, the predominating color scheme was yellow and white. In the dining room above the table hung a large white wedding bell. The centerpiece for the table was the wedding cake surrounded by yellow candles. Yellow and white brick ice cream, with the wedding bell in the center, white cake and mints were served to about eight-five guests. Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Fishel left on a wedding trip, the bride being dressed in a pretty creation of brown crepe. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends in Hope, Ind., where Mr. Fishel is employed.

The out-of town guests who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Everroad, Mrs. Frances Shultz, of Franklin, Ind.; Mrs. Miranda E. Fishel, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. E. Heilman, Miss Kathryn D. Kissling, C. E. Fishel and Land Webb, of Hope, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fishel, of Washington, Ind.; Miss Louise Adams, Mrs. E. M. Hunter, Mrs. Fannie Jarrell and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Thomas, of Connersville; Miss Lola Brooks, of Shelbyville; Mrs. Frank Joyce, Mrs. N. P. Joyce, Maurice Joyce and Miss Evelyn Joyce, of Newcastle, Ind.; Jack Schlotter, of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Mrs. Alice Harrell, of Brookville, Ind.; Charles Updike and children of St. Paul, Ind.; and Raymond Vredenburg of this city.

The Misses Mayne and Lizzie McCoy entertained with a dinner party Sunday at their home in this city, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Tony Rosefelt and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Kraus of Mays and Mr. and Mrs. Monz Kirk and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stiers and daughter Ellen of Niagara Falls, N. Y., were the Friday dinner guests of the Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Seull, living west of Milroy. Mr. Stiers and family are moving to southern California, expecting to make that their permanent residence. They are making the trip in their automobile.

The Misses Mildred Davis, Marie Looney and Mary Bates of this city were among the guests who attended a dinner party Sunday given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bergdoerfer in Connersville. The remaining guests were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rigor, Richard Rafferty, Charles Lowe, and Ralph Hawkins, all of Connersville.

Howard Kennedy, living south of this city, was delightfully surprised Sunday, when his friends and relatives gathered at his home with well filled baskets and reminded him of his seventeenth birthday. At noon a beautiful dinner was served and the dining table was prettily decorated for the occasion with fall flowers and a large birthday cake adorned with seventeen lighted candles. The honored guest received several nice and useful presents. Those who attended were: John Mock, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Holden, Mr. and Mrs. William Grinstead and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Mock and family of New Salem, Elza Starkey, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schrader and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Starkey and family of Richland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hasty and family of Milroy, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston and family of Homer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snoddy and son of Connersville, Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Clifton and daughter of Gings, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Disinger and family, Mr.

ALL BUT ONE CAR REMOVED

Smoker Believed To Hold Most Of Bodies Of Wreck Victims

Casper, Wyo., Oct. 1. —One car, a smoker of Burlington passenger train No. 30, which plunged into flooded Cole creek Thursday night still remains beneath the quick sand of the creek.

With the other four cars above water and sand, rescue crews have failed to add to the five bodies which had been recovered early Saturday.

lators who seek to impeach the governor for his alleged abuse of power in his fight against the "invisible empire", mass meetings were in progress throughout the state today. Speakers were sent into nearly every county by W. D. McBee, legislative leader. They urged the people to vote in defiance of the governor.

"County officials including sheriffs, have been instructed by the election commission to do their duty and go ahead with the election according to law," McAllister said.

At the same time Governor Walton ordered every county sheriff to padlock the polls and warned election officials against attempting to hold a referendum.

"There may be bloodshed, although I dread to say it," Governor Walton stated. "But there will be no election."

"If there is bloodshed, it can be placed at the door of newspapers which have caused this trouble. If the Muskogee Phoenix, the Oklahoma City Oklahoman and its echo, the Oklahoma News and the Tulsa Tribune had been locked up and their keys thrown into the river six weeks ago we would not be having this trouble today."

Clyde Kitchen of Milroy, captain of the Horse Thief Detective association, brought two prisoners to jail Sunday night, each being charged with intoxication. The two were high school boys of Greensburg, and their last names were Stiers and Brown. Two other companions escaped, but appeared this morning and the four were released after a lecture. It is said that they were in a machine in Milroy, and were disorderly. The boys said they had some wine.

What ever evidence Condo has, he is keeping to himself. "It will all come out before the grand jury," he said.

Sitting as an unofficial court of inquiry, the Republican state committee was prepared to go into every detail of the governor's financial difficulties. The purpose of the inquiry is to fix the party's attitude toward the governor. The result is only a matter of conjecture.

Members of the state committee and party leaders from all over the state flocked to Indianapolis Sunday for the conference, admittedly one of the most serious in the history of the Republican party in Indiana.

Clyde A. Walb, state chairman, was closeted with various party workers until a late hour last night. He announced that the committee is determined to see that the governor gets a square deal, and all the rumors which have been current since the governor's financial crash will be given a thorough airing.

One angle, which thus far has been kept in the background, will be gone into in detail. That is the question of to what extent, if any, state funds have been involved in the McCray difficulties.

Ora Davies, state treasurer, has been asked to appear before the committee to tell what he knows. Senator James E. Watson and Postmaster General New were expected here for the conference.

The MASCOT Combination Range

The large burner at the bottom of the oven gives direct action and affords an intense heat. Whether used with natural or artificial gas, an even blue flame is maintained because of the automatic air feeder, and all fumes escape through the exit flue, leaving absolutely no odor.

The Mascot Combination Range surpasses other ranges in another important particular. Years of study by experts have perfected a gas oven that is incomparably more efficient than any ever before devised; at the same time the patented flue construction that put the Mascot Coal and Wood Range in a class by itself has been maintained intact. In the Mascot Combination Range, where coal or wood is used, THE HEAT STILL GOES ALL AROUND THE OVEN. So in the Mascot Combination the makers have fully realized their ambition to make a Range that would be the last word in efficiency in the use of gas, coal or wood.

TRUSTY SHOTGUN IS OILED UP FOR ACTION

Hoosier and Will be Sportsman's Paradise This Autumn—Take
George Mannfeld's Word For it

THE BEST EVER FOR QUAIL.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 1.—With the return of the season when crisp breezes make the blood tingle, the call of the open is sending your true Hoosier to the garret to get down the trusty shotgun and oil it up for action.

For Hoosierdom will be a sportsman's paradise this autumn.

Take George Mannfeld's word for it—we're going to have more quail to miss this fall than ever before in his memory. And he ought to know for he's state director of fish and game conservation.

Mild winters, good breeding seasons, protection by the farmers, and observation of game laws by the public are responsible for this unusual crop.

Not only quail—but hunters will see more bushy-tails scurrying out of view around tree trunks.

two-thirds of both houses of Congress.

A "propaganda of destructive criticism" has been aimed at the trade union movement, "frankly revolutionary and having for its ultimate object not only destruction of trade unionism but the eventual overthrow of the democratic Government of the United States," the council said. The catchword of this propaganda has been "amalgamation," it was stated, referring to those who favor "one big union."

"Congress will be called upon to decide between the greed of unfair employers and the self-preservation of our people," in dealing with the immigration problem, the report said, pointing out "the danger to our institutions of immigration is not restricted to a greater extent than is provided in the present law." The convention was urged to go on record in favor of much stricter limitation, even for complete prohibition of immigration for a time. Commenting on the demand for an Americanization program the council said:

The council recommended that the A. F. of L. participate heartily in all efforts being made in a time of prosperity like the present to prepare against an unemployment period. All wage-earners were urged to send to headquarters best thoughts and suggestion on means of preventing unemployment.

Emphasizing the importance of credit in the industrial life of the nation, the council reported adversely on the plan to establish a central labor bank in Washington D. C., to co-ordinate the activities of labor banks throughout the country. It pointed out that the twenty-three to start are organized on different plans and that it would be impossible to bring them together in a unit. The central bank project is, therefore, "not only impracticable, but undesirable," the council said.

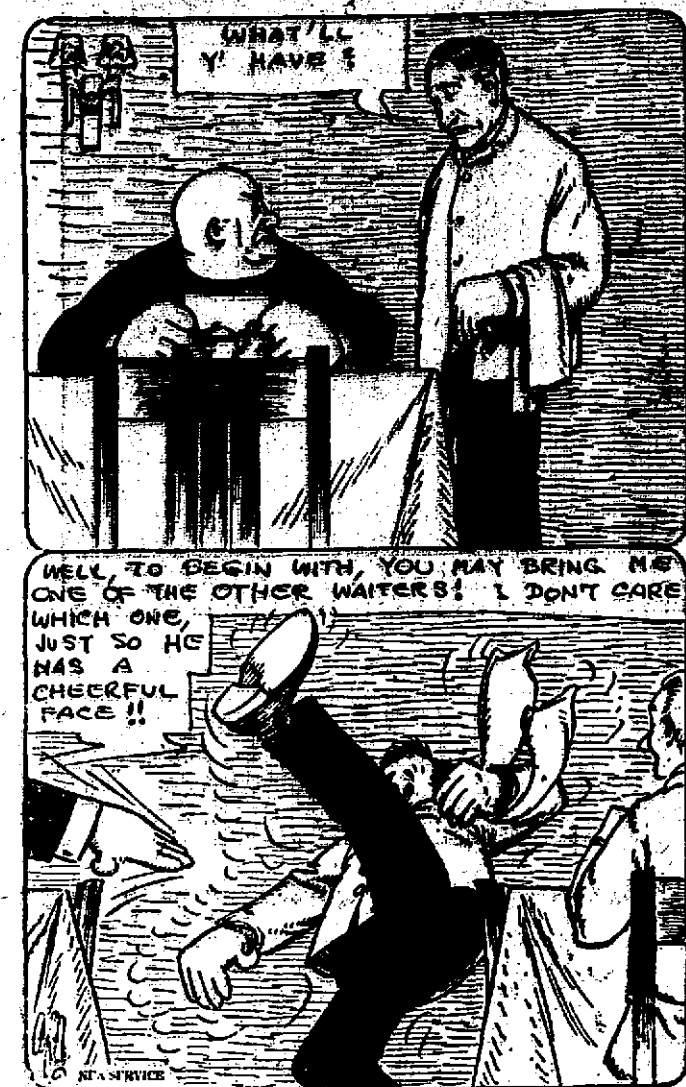

Pointing to the fact that "through the activities of the A. F. of L. Non Partisan Campaign Committee twenty-three candidates for United States Senator who had been loyal to labor and the people were elected and eleven reactionary Senators defeated, and the 170 House members were elected, either because the A. F. of L. supported them or opposed their rivals," the council advocated that the convention provide more funds for similar activities in the 1924 campaign so that "a most thorough campaign can be inaugurated and carried to a successful conclusion."

"Kansas once again is heading toward freedom" as the result of the Supreme Court's decision "dismembering" the Industrial Court, the council said. In view of the decision "the only purpose now being served by the remnants of ex-Governor Allen's law is to provide jobs for his political appointees on this court and to squander the money of the taxpayers of Kansas," Governor Davis was commended for his efforts to abrogate the law entirely.

The so-called "American plan" or open shop was condemned as an effort to put workers into slavery, and the council declared that the successful strikes of nearly 2,000,000 wage-earners in the United States are responsible for the prosperity this country is enjoying, since

If Stomach Is Sour, Food Won't Digest

No stomach filled with sour poisons can digest food. Everything you eat turns into more poison and gas making you nervous and weak. Simple buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, expels all sour poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowels. Removes foul, decaying food-matter you never thought was in your system which caused sour and gassy stomach. Adlerika is EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. Firm, Plump Flesh!

MANY are the eyes that are turned to gaze with keen admiration on the well developed, healthy girl no matter where she may be—on the rapidly moving thoroughfare or gliding gracefully over the dance floor.

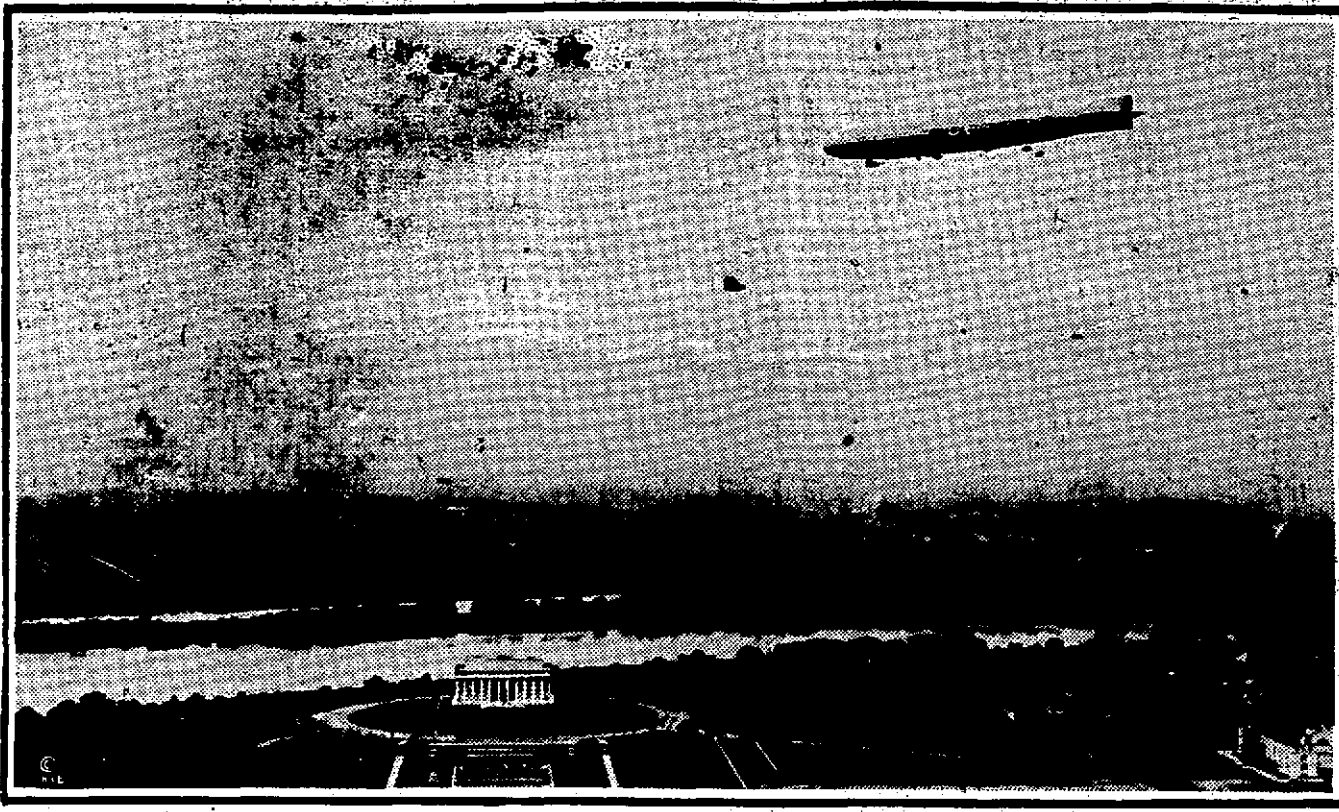

All eyes turn because we all appreciate the girl with the figure so firm and plump—the girl with radiantly red cheeks, cheeks that carry a touch of roses from nature's own garden—the girl with the sparkling eyes, keen and sharp—the girl with buoyancy and the swing of youth.

Not necessarily an out-of-doors girl. Just a girl with ever increasing blood cells. Just a girl filled with the vim and vigor of youth.

S. S. S., since 1826, has stood for increased blood cells. S. S. S. means restored strength—rekindled vitality—added energy. Take S. S. S. and watch the bloom of youth return to your cheeks. Watch that flabby, ill nourished flesh fade away before flesh that is firm and plump. Red blood cells will do it and S. S. S. will build them. It contains only pure vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is more economical.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Rushville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. W. A. Wylie, 524 N. Arthur St., Rushville, gave the following statement September 20, 1915: "My trouble began with a clutching digging pain directly across my kidneys and over my hips. The pain was terrible and I had to be given pain-easing tablets by the doctor to relieve it. I was unable to do my housework for a week and was in misery. Others of my family had taken Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent results so I began using them. I did not have to use a whole box before the pain let up and soon disappeared."

On November 4, 1920, Mrs. Wylie said: "I still have the same high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I haven't had to use them lately as my cure has been a lasting one." 60c. at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Night Scenes At Princess

What are said to be some of the most remarkable night scenes ever filmed will be seen in "The Go-Getter," a Paramount-Cosmopolitan production based on Peter B. Kyne's popular story of the same name, directed by E. H. Griffith, which will be shown at the Princess Theatre today and Tuesday. These particular scenes in the picture were filmed in Logu Island, N. Y., from Mineola to Hicksville, and while they were being "shot" the company worked for three "days" from sunset to sunrise.

One scene in particular is said to be a revelation in photography. This picture is a race at night between an airplane and a speeding express train, culminating when the plane forges ahead and lights alongside the railroad tracks several hundred yards in advance of the train. One of the most melodramatic incidents in the picture then takes place as T. Roy Barnes, features in the picture, flags the oncoming express, which is "shot" while going at the rate of forty miles an hour. The train used in this scene was chartered from the Long Island branch of the Pennsylvania railroad. Three huge motor generating sets were used in the filming of these scenes, which were photographed by Harold Wenstrom.

"The Critical Age," Mystic

A romantic love story set amid a background of Canadian forests with plenty of thrills and humor intermingled, can be found in "The Critical Age," an adaptation of Ralph Connor's well known novel, "Glen-garry Schooldays," the feature attraction at the Mystic Theatre today and Tuesday. Ernest Shipman, producer, took his company from New York clear up to the upper reaches of the Ottawa River upon the exact locality as called for in Mr. Connor's novel.

habit of figuratively dreaming his life away. However, when Bob Kerr, a polished and wealthy city chap, enters the scene and begins monopolizing the girl, then the dreamer shows fight. With the aid of his dog, the country dreamer rescues the girl from the rapids after she had been left to her fate by her companion the city fellow. The wild chase by an angry bear and the final rescue of the girl's father, whose vote was needed in Ottawa to defeat an abnoxious law, brings the country lad out of the dreamer class and makes him a member of the girl's family.

One of the principal actors in "The Critical Age" is a big Belgian Police dog, who stages a thrilling rescue and who supplies a lot of the excitement and suspense of the story. The scenes in and about the school, it is said, are extremely laughable.

Indiana University's Student Body Numbers Nearly 3,600

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 1.—With a few late students still straggling in, the enrollment of the University of Indiana totals nearly 3,600, an increase of 600 over last year's enrollment.

Three hundred twenty of the 3,600 are enrolled in the medical school at Indianapolis. The remainder are enrolled in various departments here.

Indiana is not a co-ed's school, registrar's figures show. Men have a majority of 590 in the registration at Bloomington.

WINTER NOT FAR AWAY

Attica, Ind., Oct. 1.—Weather prophets here have seen a sure sign of approaching cold weather. Thousands of swallows have been observed flying southward. One day a flock which was a quarter of a mile wide and required two hours to pass a given point was seen flying southward. This, according to old citizens of Attica, is an indication that the key breath of winter is not far away.

Not Veneer

"I HAVE yet to find a Standard Oil service station attendant who fails to reflect the ideals of service set forth in Standard Oil Company (Indiana) advertising."

Such was the comment of an observant man who had been expressing his opinion of service in industry.

It is but a composite of the general feeling among patrons of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The spirit of service is highly developed in every employe of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), whether he wears overalls or occupies a place on the directorate.

Every man and woman of the 27,000 employes making up the personnel of this Company is obsessed with but one ambition—to do his or her part in making the Company greater in size and in service.

It is a natural development that follows fair dealing, camaraderie, pleasant working conditions, just treatment, skillful management—in short, intensive organization modernized to the last degree.

It is eloquent of the spirit prevailing throughout the organization—of the complete understanding of purpose, between the executives and those who are on the firing line making the last turn in the great cycle of Standard Oil service.

Where complete understanding exists there are no obstacles too difficult to overcome.

Complete understanding between the Company and the thirty million people of the Middle West has caused the list of shareholders in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to increase in four years' time from 4,800 to 42,706—not one of whom owns as much as 6% of the total.
